Private Villas, with Akorn

With the availability of so many online platforms it is relatively easy to find a house to rent anywhere in the world. However, it is also easy to be completely disappointed when you get a just a rundown sad empty house with no services or hospitality. With Akorn Brazil we have hand-picked these villas and added our special touches to make sure you feel at home from the moment your walk in the front door.

1. Every villa carefully selected

Every villa has been carefully visited, inspected and deemed suitable for our clients before it comes close to passing Akorn Villas selection criteria. By choosing these villas so personally and professionally, we have a vested interest in each of them. We know that you will want to stay there because we do. We know that the amenities are what we put in the descriptions – because we compiled them. And we guarantee that what you see is what you get. We continue visiting all our properties while we represent them to constantly ensure they maintain our, and importantly your, quality standards.

2. Villa Manager

On arrival at your property, you will be met by an Akorn representative or the villa's manager. And after that, your local host will never be far away, to ensure everything runs smoothly. Our headquarters office in Rio de Janeiro also provides 24/7 on-call support, so if there is an emergency we are on hand to help immediately.

3. Menu and Groceries

Walk into a full stocked kitchen and pantry with your favorite food and drinks. Let us take care of the errands so you can enjoy the your luxury villa with your family and friends. A private cook or chef can take care of all the cooking and will happily customize a menu that meets the party's dietary preferences.

4. Explore your Surrounding

Our villas are all selected for their unique locations and sense of place. Get out and explore the surrounding with Akorn services including excursions with local guides and experience with unique local specialists. We will happily pre-arrange your local tours and transfers and can also provide a concierge to confirm any last minute arrangements.

Private Villas, with Akorn

We also go the extra length to customize your stay and provide specialist add-on services to your villa. Here are just a few of the supplemental services we can provide to our Villas:

1. Villa Spa

We bring the spa to you. We arrange for professional therapists to bring the complete spa experience in to your Villa, offering massages, specialty skin care treatments, as well as hair, nails and salon services.

2. Fitness or Yoga Instructor

Be it for one class or the entire stay we can arrange fitness professionals and yoga instructors to provide classes right in your Villa.

3. Traveling Photographer

Don't miss any shot with your traveling photographer. This professional will make sure to capture your best shots during tours, excursions or just while having fun at the pool. Photos and a short video are shared every evening in the Living room TV and a final album can be produced and sent to your home.

4. Local Barista

A local barista can be on-hand to serve afternoon and evening cocktails by the pool. Take the opportunity to learn how to make some of our local cocktails.

Rio de Janeiro

the Carioca spirit

AKORN DESTINATION MANAGEMENT

Rio de Janeiro

Perhaps no other destination in Brazil is more legendary than Rio de Janeiro, known for its Samba, Carnival and dazzling beaches. This former colonial city also boasts historic architecture, incredible natural scenery and iconic sights, such as the towering statue of Christ the Redeemer.

Rio de Janeiro is the Brazilian tourism capital, with a population of six million. Known by its inhabitants, the Cariocas, as the “Cidade Maravilhosa” (Marvelous City), its reputation precedes it. Images explode forth of stunning mountains, glittering carnival costumes, the statue of Christ’s welcoming outspread arms, skimpy bikinis and the endless rhythm of samba. However, behind all the glitz and glamour, this wonderful city, located in the Southeast Region of Brazil, is also rich in history and culture. There are many fine buildings, historical neighborhoods and museums from its time as the capital of Brazil.

In Rio, the more you explore the more there is to experience. The Cariocas are very friendly and welcoming people, guaranteeing to make your Brazilian vacation a memorable one.

Why a Villa?

Rio de Janeiro receives tourists all year round and so a villa provides that extra bit of exclusivity, compared to a busy hotel. The villas are often located in lesser-known and less touristy parts of the city, therefore providing a haven away from the hustle and bustle.

High on a hilltop in Santa Teresa neighborhood, between downtown Rio, Copacabana and Ipanema beaches, Chez Georges is a unique place to experience the Carioca lifestyle.

Due to the villa's lofty and secluded location on the edge of a protected forest, such sights as Sugarloaf Mountain, Guanabara Bay, and the city rooftops provide impressive backdrops from various vantage points around the property, including the living room with expansive windows, the patio with its vaulted concrete pergola and the 360-degree panoramic viewing point on the roof. The house has 7 bedrooms and 7 bathrooms and a complete structure for the guests. It's a unique architectural villa comprised of arches, concrete and precious woods.

Angra dos Reis

hundreds of reasons to love it

Angra dos Reis

Angra do Reis is one of Brazil's most dazzling and breathtaking destinations. Composed of more than three hundred islands and over two thousand beaches, Angra dos Reis is the tropical vacation destination of any travelers' fantasies. The city's center is reminiscent of smaller colonial cities and boasts amazing historical monuments, churches and architecture. Ilha Grande, the largest island of the 365, serves as the main attraction and was used as the colonial center for pirates who originally settled there. Ocean tours and activities are widely available and provide the opportunity to visit the different islands and beaches as well as enjoy the exclusivity of their sandy shores.

Why a Villa?

Angra dos Reis is one of the few places in Brazil where you can rent an entire island. And on some of these islands, we've found the most incredible villas, which come complete with private beaches, boats at disposal, butler service, mesmerizing views and of course, the utmost comfort and luxury.

Trancoso

Trancoso is a quiet, charming, preserved village with a young, international vibe.

Trancoso was founded at the beginning of the Portuguese colonization by the Jesuits as an indigenous village for the catechization of the Indians. However, in recent years, it has ceased to be the rustic and isolated village as it was discovered by hippies in the 1970s and became a popular tourist hotspot. The Square in the center remains the heart of the village where locals and tourists gather.

The colorful houses that line the square have been converted into bars, restaurants, stylish inns, craft shops and famous designer boutiques. This charming village is surrounded by beautiful beaches and an exuberant nature with a mild climate all year round, making it a popular choice to visit.

Why a Villa?

Trancoso has plenty of good accommodation options and besides all the hotels, there are also plenty of private condominiums filled with beautiful mansions. It is possible to hire some of these houses, allowing guests to receive a more local experience full of private services and exclusivity.

Itacaré

gateway to paradise

Itacaré

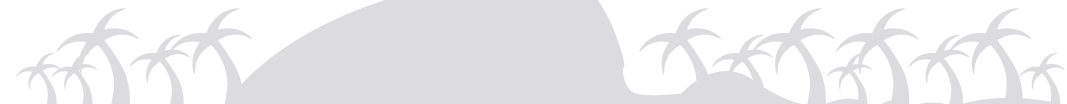

Situated on Rio de Contas estuary, Itacaré is the gateway to spectacular stretches of coastline where the dense Atlantic Forest dramatically reaches down to meet the South Atlantic Ocean, forming a chain of coves and inlets, many only accessible by forest trails. Until relatively recently the area was known to few except fishermen and surfers. While the town has grown, the surrounding region, now an environmentally protected area, maintains and protects its natural beauty. The dipping contours of the surrounding countryside provide wonderful forest walks to isolated beaches or waterfalls, great rafting and other adventure sports. The beaches of Itacaré are considered the best surfing in Brazil. Itacaré is host to a wide variety of accommodation options, from simple to simply exquisite, as well as a choice of excellent restaurants.

Why a Villa?

Itacaré is a simple, rustic village with limited five-star accommodation options. Villas in this area provide a more luxurious setting, surrounded by lush nature. The service that the villas are able to offer rival all the hotels in this little corner of paradise.

The hotel is set in a 100-hectare estate of native Atlantic Rainforest, an ancient oceanfront farm that produced coconut and cocoa. Additionally, the hotel's restaurants offer a light cuisine with local products in carefully-prepared dishes.

Maraú

open-ocean experience

Maraú

Barra Grande is located in the Maraú Peninsula, bordered by the South Atlantic to the east and the Camamu Bay to the west, providing a wonderful mix of open ocean beaches, considered amongst the finest in Brazil, and the calm protected quiet waters of the Camamu Bay. Maraú (an indigenous word meaning the “sun’s light at daybreak”) is the name given to the peninsula which separates the Camamu Bay (third largest in Brazil) from the waters of the South Atlantic Ocean, a narrow strip of land running north from the Rio de Contas river. The difficulty of access and the designation of the region as an Environment Protection Area have meant that this idyllic part of Bahia still remains virtually undisturbed.

Why a Villa?

Barra Grande is the main center to the Marau Peninsula. The village is small with just a few accommodation options. A private rental ensures more luxury and exclusivity in a region very much undiscovered by tourism.

Jericoacoara

heaven on earth

Akorn

Jericoacoara

Jericoacoara is an ecological paradise located in an area of environmental preservation, a small fishing village located in the state of Ceará, around five hours from Fortaleza. The sandy streets and absence of streetlights contrast with the lively nightlife and tourism infrastructure.

The long coastline of beaches, dunes, clear freshwater lakes and warm natural pools make a perfect setting. The Duna do Pôr do Sol (Sunset Dune) is a must see in the late afternoon.

For water sports lovers, this is the place. Here, windsurfers and kitesurfers come from around the world to find the perfect amount of wind and waves of all sizes, allowing for the practice of several styles. Canoeing, fishing, capoeira, boating, horseback riding and bike riding are also highly recommended in this natural paradise.

The intensity of the sun makes the sand dunes change color every instant, and the tidal movement is so extreme that it leaves one beach full of water reaching up to the dunes, while another is so dry that the boats are left anchored in the desert.

Why a Villa?

Jericoacoara is fast-becoming a popular destination and so during certain times of the year this charming fishing village can become very crowded. Renting a private villa can allow guests to retreat back to their own personal space with more privacy than a hotel can offer.

Atins

The Lençóis Maranhenses National Park harbors hundreds of turquoise lagoons, providing a visual spectacle that has been featured in such publications as National Geographic. The freshwater lagoons and dunes also act as an expansive playground for swimmers, sunbathers and explorers, as well as being an ideal location for kitesurfers thanks to optimal wind levels and flat waters.

Most visitors explore the park by truck from the city of Barreirinhas. In Atins you'll go on foot, riding horseback or with a 4×4 pick-up from the beach with local experienced guides who will give you a different view of the Lençóis Maranhenses.

Why a Villa?

A villa near the Lencois Maranhenses National Park ensures a more luxurious stay in an area that can otherwise be quite modest in terms of accommodation (with the exception of La Ferme de Georges). The types of services made available by a villa raise this option high above the hotels.

Pantanal

nature at its purest

Pantanal

Located in the geographic centre of South America, the Pantanal is the largest wetland plain on the entire planet.

The imposing and magnificent scenery is the habitat of the largest concentration of wildlife in the Americas. It shelters over 650 species of birds, 400 species of fish and 80 species of mammals, many threatened with extinction. In 2000, the Pantanal wetland was designated a World Natural Heritage and World Biosphere Reserve by UNESCO.

Why a Villa?

The Caiman Ecological Refuge already provides an incredible experience in the middle of the Pantanal, but the opportunity to rent one of the lodge's private villas ensures total privacy and a tailored service.
