

A Taste of Country Life and Kampot Pepper, Cambodia

Beautiful landscapes, charming Khmer villages and verdant rice fields fill the countryside of Kep. Experience the simple life in this remote region, just a few hours' drive from Sihanoukville, and discover how the world's best pepper - Kampot Pepper - is produced at humble plantations.

A Celebration of Local Arts in Chiang Mai, Thailand

Explore Chiang Mai's distinguished art scene, visiting MAIIAM to see a private collection of contemporary paintings and sculptures and the House of Many Elephants, which displays hundreds of wooden elephants, all individually hand-crafted by local artisans.

ALILA VILLAS KOH RUSSEY, Cambodia

A rare Khmer beauty on an isolated corner of a private island in the Cambodian archipelago, the much anticipated Alila is set to open later this year.

Why we love it:

A slice of Riviera heaven just 30 minutes from the mainland, we love this ecological resort oozing classic Khmer charm – it's the ultimate private island paradise surrounded by emerald waters.

RAYA HERITAGE Chiang Mai, Thailand

Recently opened, this elegant all-suite property is inspired by the spirit of the ancient Lanna kingdom, featuring warm touches of hand woven textiles, artifacts and wood carvings throughout.

Why we love it:

This boutique resort offers elegance, style and lots of sass appeal, without the price tag! We love the location on the banks of the Ping River. Watch out Chiang Mai, this may just be our new favorite home away from home!

FOUR SEASONS THE NAM HAI, Hoi An, Vietnam

A portal to central Vietnam's diverse charms, this property boasts an idyllic beachfront, just a stone's throw from ancient Hoi An and cosmopolitan Da Nang.

Why we love it:

With that Four Seasons style we all adore, the recently refurbished villas offer a modern twist on traditional Vietnamese elegance. Feeling very much at home, we found it particularly hard to leave!
