ENHANCE THE EXPERIENCE

FRIDAY SHABBAT MEAL

Our Jewish Hop On Guide, Ivor, alongside his wife, enjoys hosting Jewish guests at their home for a Friday night Shabbat dinner. On arrival enjoy a welcome drink ranging from fruit juice to a whiskey and a bit of "getting to know you" conversation. Traditional blessings over wine (kiddush) and bread (challah) will be performed together with blessings for the guests. Dinner is served in the dining room, consisting of a starter, followed by a main course of either fish, meat or vegetarian with accompanying vegetables and salads, ending with a fruit platter and apple or plum pie.

Thereafter if preferred, there would be grace after meals (full or shortened versions) followed by tea or coffee in the lounge. The home and all food served, whether bought or home prepared, would be Kosher.

JEWISH CULTURAL TOUR OF CAPE TOWN

Experience the history of the Jewish Community's roots in Cape Town's city centre as well as witnessing the growth of a healthy and vibrant community.

The South African Jewish Museum, opened by Nelson Mandela in 2000 is situated on the heritage site of the Gardens Synagogue built in 1863. It also houses the Cape Town Holocaust Centre and the Gitlin Library. The Cape Town Holocaust Centre, the first in Africa, explores racial and religious intolerance, ideological conflict and persecution, echoing the human rights abuses of the apartheid era in South Africa. We will also visit the Great Synagogue.

Depending on the timing of the day, we could also walk through the Company Gardens. The gardens offer a fresh produce garden for visiting ships from the mid-17th Century. It is also home to the Houses of Parliament as well as Cape Town's Jewish Campus and you can discover a little-known artefact in the South African National Gallery.
