Baan Sak Tong villa and lotus pond

Pa Sak Tong Estate

Chiang Rai, Thailand

Surrounded by endless rice fields and quiet walking trails, Pa Sak Tong Estate is an idyllic, private sanctuary spanning 29 acres. Complete with its own gentle streams, lotus flowers, koi fish ponds, rice fields and water buffalo, the property comes with a team of private butlers who take care of every need, while the chef prepares all-inclusive meals using organic produce from the garden and neighboring farms. The property consists of two parts: Baan Sak Tong is a five-bedroom villa with a swimming pool and lotus pond while Khum Sak Tong offers a total of six bedrooms in three garden cottages (one two-bedroom cottage and two one-bedroom cottages) and a main villa with two bedrooms overlooking the swimming pool and rice fields.

Why we love it

Beyond the incredible service and stunning setting, this estate offers a chance to experience the real Thailand, surrounded by villages and countryside where no other tourists go. From blessings at a mountain temple, leisurely walks to nearby plantations or private dining overlooking verdant rice fields, every experience here is magical and highly personalized. Dining at Locus Native Food Lab, an intimate 12-seat venue that serves a locally sourced tasting menus next to the estate is also a highlight.

EXPERIENCES AT PA SAK TONG ESTATE

Go Hiking and Biking in Plantations and Villages

Step out the villa's back door to discover old forests, lakes, tea plantations and ethnic villages that most tourists don't get to see. Learn about local flora and fauna from a village elder and enjoy a picnic overlooking untouched valleys.

Feast from a Thai Royal Project Organic Garden

Many of the fruits and vegetables served during your stay at Pa Sak Tong Estate are sourced from the organic garden which provides training to local villagers about how to grow sustainable, healthy and chemical-free produce, in partnership with the Thai Royal Project Foundation.

Dine at Locus Native Food Lab

Located just beside the property, this innovative restaurant presents an ever-evolving menu of northern Thai flavors by Chef Kong and his team. Often booked months in advance, this intimate chef's table experience gives priority seating to guests of Pa Sak Tong Estate.

Discover Wellness

With three spas located on the property, Pa Sak Tong Estate offers plenty of options for relaxation and rejuvenation. Indulge in signature massages and healing treatments or experience yoga, meditation or acupuncture with views of rice fields and buffaloes.

Experience Northern Thai Culture

Take part in local cultural traditions and witness authentic northern Thai life. Be blessed by an abbot at a hilltop temple, give alms to monks or discover the region's natural history on private, unscripted adventures in nearby villages.

Cook a Thai Meal

Add a few Thai dishes to your cooking repertoire with a lesson in culinary arts by Pa Sak Tong Estate's own chef. Visit the fresh market and learn traditional techniques used in various regions of Thailand.

Howie's HomeStay

Chiang Mai, Thailand

Nestled among northern Thailand's rustic mountains, Howie's HomeStay is an eco sanctuary that offers private, boutique accommodation and all-inclusive, home-cooked Thai meals by the villa chef. Designed by renowned hotel architect, Bill Bensley, the property features reclaimed teak wood, custom bronze details, vaulted ceilings and timeless arts from the old Lanna Thai kingdom. The one-bedroom Teak Pavilion sleeps up to two people in a studio-like residence with spectacular mountain views, while the three-bedroom Family Pavilion sleeps up to six people. The centerpiece of the property is the infinity-edge swimming pool set beside the central dining pavilion amidst the landscaped tropical garden.

Why we love it

While the property itself is a work of art, with curated treasures in every corner and creative flourishes by the inimitable designer, Bill Bensley, the most striking element of this property is its sense of home and down-to-earth character. Villa hosts, Howie and Jerri, provide thoughtful and personal touches that cannot be replicated anywhere else, from Jerri's exquisite, Thai family cooking to Howie's attentive, highly personalized and heartfelt service.

Overview

Located at the far end of the camp, the safari-style Explorer's Lodge offers two airy bedrooms, a spacious deck and outdoor plunge pool with stunning views of the surrounding jungle. Delivering complete privacy in its secluded location, the lodge is decorated with lavish handcrafted furnishings that combine comfort and authenticity, from custom bathtubs and bespoke accessories to carefully chosen objets d'art that offer a glimpse into Thai culture and craftsmanship.

Why we love it

The private tree-fringed infinity pool is the perfect place to relax, surrounded by natural jungle and a lamplit terrace that opens up to unforgettable sunset panoramas.
