LATIN AMERICA

Regional Travel Information and Map

Graffoodie Tour - Buenos Aires

“Stroll around Buenos Aires to the rhythm of tango, as you learn from your Akorn expert about the history of Argentina through open-air galleries of urban art showcasing from political allusions to soccer achievements. And stop to pamper your palate by discovering new flavors at authentic local places with the best cuisine and spirits our local team has carefully handpicked as their favorites.”

South Glacier Pioneers - El Calafate

Playa de las Monedas is one of Patagonia's best-kept secrets and a great opportunity to discover Parque Nacional Los Glaciares from a different perspective. Embark with Akorn on an exclusive navigation to the most hidden corners of the national park, unknown to most visitors and even many locals! And end the day with an all-Argentine asado experience to pamper the senses.”

Private Views of the Lake District - Bariloche

“Experience remote parts of the Lake District glamping style, with an open-air hot tub, enjoying a local asado by your private chef, surrounded by beautiful views of the mountain range. And then jump on board your private yacht to navigate the Nahuel Huapi lake in style, with some live entertainment and a glass of Malbec in hand”

Must-Do in Argentina

Argentina is a large and diverse country that offers something for everybody. During your visit, remember to: immerse into the tango culture, pamper the palate with asado and wine, dive into the world of soccer and polo and, gear up to find yourself among impressive glaciers and vast pampas at the End of the World in barren Patagonia.

Best Time to Go

The high season is from September to March, however many destinations such as Iguazu, Salta, Mendoza and Buenos Aires are all year round. Ski in Patagonia during our winter and whale watching in Peninsula Valdes between July to October.

“As a passionate and curious traveler, I've always enjoyed horseback riding across the golden Argentine pampas, exploring remote places and delving into every wine-related activity to the rhythm of Argentine Malbec and Torrontes. It is those sensations that I've seen come to life what I try to portray in every activity that we carefully design for our guests. I believe it's all about blending the comfort of luxury travel with the thrill of setting free the spirit to embrace a wild destination!”

WOW Moments Brazil

Private Sunrise at Christ Redeemer - Rio de Janeiro

"An unparalleled breakfast awaits you at the foot of the iconic Christ the Redeemer, before regular opening hours - the epitome of exclusivity in Rio de Janeiro. Witness the sun rising before your eyes, savor the authentic flavors of Brazil, and feel the warm embrace of Christ welcoming you to this beautiful country. A chance to privately experience one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World in style"

Private Jaguar Safari - Pantanal

"Gear up for an unforgettable journey deep into the heart of the Pantanal, the world's largest wetland, in pursuit of the elusive jaguar. With Akorn Brazil as your guide, venture into the wilderness alongside expert local naturalists, granting you exclusive access to spot rare endemic species, including the iconic jaguars, thriving in their natural habitat. After an exhilarating day, retreat to the comforts of your private villa, thoughtfully catered by our exceptional local team."

4x4 Dune Adventure - Lençóis Maranhenses

"Get ready to take the wheel and embark on an exhilarating adventure through the mesmerizing sand dunes and freshwater lagoons of Lençóis Maranhenses. Feel the excitement as you navigate the undulating terrain, making stops to plunge into the refreshing crystalline waters of the lagoons that form amidst the vastness of the dunes. Capture surreal backdrops on this 4x4 expedition, culminating in a surprise picnic thoughtfully catered by our Akorn Brazil team to complete your day of excitement and discovery."

Must-Do in Brazil

As the largest country in South America, Brazil beckons with its unparalleled diversity and magic. While you explore this captivating land, be sure to seize the following must-do experiences: immerse yourself in a Carnival-related activity, bask in the sun at the splendid beaches, marvel at the iconic Christ Redeemer, embrace the rhythm of capoeira with lessons in Salvador, and if luck permits, plan your Iguassu visit on a mesmerizing full-moon night.

Best Time to Go

With its vast size and favorable location, Brazil welcomes visitors year-round. As the ultimate South American beach destination, the coast boasts splendid weather. For Pantanal, Bonito, and Lençóis Maranhenses, the best time to visit is from May to October. To experience the most vibrant celebrations, plan your trip during New Year's Eve and Carnival for unmatched festivities on this side of the world.

"A proud Carioca as I am, I have lived most of my life in the "Cidade Maravilhosa", Rio de Janeiro! Being raised by a mom who loves to travel and a dad who has always enjoyed adventure, trips forged my passion for learning about different cultures and traveling. This life experience and my desire to help others see the wonders of our beautiful world through my eyes inspired me to study tourism and later earn a Master's Degree in Projects, which has, of course, been the door to show the world the beauty of the Land of samba and emotions, with Akorn."

Private Chile from Above - Santiago, Wine Country and the Central Coast

“Take your Chile experience to a higher level on a journey from the Andean peaks to the Colchagua wine valley and the Pacific Coast, privately by helicopter. Start with breakfast in the heart of the mighty Andes and keep on discovering the flavors and backdrops of Chile, as you make stops to sip on tantalizing wine or take surfing lessons in the Pacific Ocean.”

A Day with the Mapuche - Pucon

“Learn from the most resilient indigenous culture in Chile, on a visit to a Mapuche community in the Pucon area. Join them for a full-day experience taking part in cooking demonstrations, traditional games and everyday activities, such as wool weaving and outdoor excursions that will find you sharing ancient cultural expressions and embracing the beauty of this quaint culture.”

Active Patagonia by Akorn – Torres del Paine

“A truly active journey in one of the most remote areas of Patagonia. Adventure on serious hikes to the best viewpoints, kayak your way on glacier waters in and out of the pristine Torres del Paine National Park and ice hike on iconic glacier Grey - all exclusive activities specially catered for Akorn guests. Ending each day back to the comfort of a sustainable cozy lodge with amazing views of the iconic towers from your bed, and farm-to-table gourmet meals paired with top Chilean wines.”

Must-Do in Chile

A long thin country, Chile is home to several ecosystems that make it unique. During your visit, remember to: explore the different valleys around Santiago to make your own wine, go stargazing in the pristine Atacama Desert, head south and embrace freedom in Patagonia and organize your experience off to Antarctica.

Best Time to Go

While peak season is from November to March, Chile is blessed with a long extension of land and a great climate that makes it a genuine year-round destination. Discover Patagonia or The Lake District with fewer crowds during shoulder season (Spring or Fall), the sublime beauty of Atacama any time of the year, and in winter ski in the Central Valley for a truly breathtaking contrast.

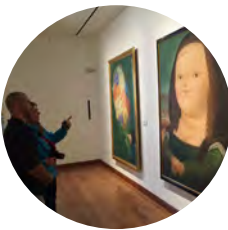

“I was born in Germany and moved to this land of natural contrasts in 2004, after literally falling in love with the country on a previous trip. I love traveling to places that allow me to enjoy new experiences and build lasting memories that I can pass on to many people as possible! My second passion, cooking, perfectly complements the first one, as food is the best way to get to know people, and by combining both I have been able to understand and dive into the magic that compose the quaint Chilean world!”

Hands-on with Three Local Chefs - Bogota

“Meet three of Bogota’s top chefs in the vibrant neighborhood of Chapinero, where you will be welcomed into their homes, with open access to their kitchens and learn what Colombian cuisine is all about. Let your senses enjoy this journey of flavors either hands-on or letting the experts cook for you!”

Private Tour of Botero Museum - Bogota

“Visit the Botero Museum in Bogota with Fernando Botero’s nephew. This insider access experience will provide you with a unique and intimate view of Botero’s life and work. From his signature plump figures to his political commentary, you will gain a comprehensive understanding of the artist’s contributions to the art world.”

Fly Over the Lost City - Santa Marta

“Fly over Colombia’s mythical Lost City by private helicopter. Dig into the past as the views feed your imagination and learn all about this site with an Akorn expert. With knowledge in hand, you will have a unique encounter with the Teyuna community, whose ancestors have inhabited this place for centuries.”

Must-Do in Colombia

Tropical, fun and versatile, a land of endless possibilities. During your visit take salsa lessons to embrace the Colombian spirit, visit Andean coffee fields to taste award-winning coffee, and explore turquoise waters on your own private boat. A great combination with various gastronomic and cultural hotspots.

Best Time to Go

Colombia is a year-round destination with easy access from many countries and great weather due to its prime location near the Equator. However, the rainy season in the different regions of the country is in April and October.

“I have been with the Akorn family for more than 20 years. Pursuing excellence at Akorn is a permanent challenge for me, changing people’s lives through travel and creating strong relations and loyalty with its clients speaks loudly of how important people are to us. I feel honored with this new challenge to show Colombia to all of you. If you are up to explore; get acquainted and fall in love with this country full of “Encanto”, give yourself an opportunity and let our team open the doors to Colombia.”

WOW Moments Costa Rica

Around Costa Rica on E-Bikes - Costa Rica

“Hop on your e-bike and cycle your way across the ecosystems of Costa Rica. From golden beaches to lush forests and rivers, we will take you exploring the colors of this land, embracing freedom. Our top-notch e-bikes and gear will give you the peace of mind of switching them on uphill if needed and to only worry about enjoying the views.”

Private Sunset Sailing - North Pacific

“Set sail on a private boat along the North Pacific on an adventure to take in the natural beauty of Costa Rica in style. And, of course, this experience can be completed with snorkeling and other water activities to make it memorable.”

Cleanse with a Bribri Shaman - Puerto Viejo de Limon

“Meet a well-respected Bribri shaman, in the heart of the Talamanca Mountains. He will tell you first-hand all about the local ancestry, and beliefs, where Mother Earth and medicinal herbs play a significant role.”

Must-Do in Costa Rica

In such a naturally rich destination, visiting as many national parks as you can, will always be the recommendation.

These places will allow you to embrace the vibrant spirit of Mother Nature with thrilling activities such as zip lining, rafting, biking or simply exploring your way, through lush forests and golden beaches.

Best Time to Go

Costa Rica is a year-round destination. During our “dry” season, from November to April, you can pull on the boots and explore Costa Rica’s rich nature on thrilling activities. And from May to October you can enjoy the green views and sunny mornings of the Caribbean and the rainforest.”

“Born and brought up among the colors of San Jose and the Caribbean coast of Costa Rica, from an early age I learned to appreciate the “everyday” miracles of life embracing them as mine to share with the world. From contemplating the sun paint the skies in velvet tones before kissing the ocean, to setting foot in pristine forests that one can almost feel hugging you like a loving mother. In Costa Rica we like to think every gift of Mother Nature is like a living marvel, my goal is to help the world see through the eyes of a Tico, and embrace life at its purest, in style.”

WOW Moments Ecuador

Private Galapagos - Galapagos Islands

"Explore the Galapagos in style, chartering one of our hand-picked exclusive yachts and catamarans or staying at a private villa. And, for the more adventurous looking to meet the locals under the sea, we can arrange scuba diving to make your way into the heart of the enchanted islands for unique encounters with nature underwater."

Private Views of the City - Quito

"While visiting Quito's most iconic church - La Compañía, we can arrange privileged access to its domes. You will not only be able to embrace jaw-dropping views of the city, but you will also pamper your senses with a sundowner or have a unique Instagram session."

Flavor Safari - Quito

"Let us take you on a dining experience that will allow you to take in the beauty of Quito, while making the most of your time, visiting places between courses. On this Quito Safari Dinner, you will be visiting different restaurants handpicked by our local team to savor every flavor of Ecuador, trying to identify every local ingredient and every cuisine style."

Must-Do in Ecuador

Nestled in the exact 0° latitude, each of Ecuador's four worlds has its own must-do, which can be included during your visit. Participate in all the chocolate-related experiences that you can in World #1, delight your sight and embrace the spirit of the Andes in World #2, purchase a fine toquilla-fiber hat in World #3 and go snorkeling with penguins in World #4.

Best Time to Go

In terms of weather, it is recommended to enjoy the wonders of the Galapagos from December to May, while the season between June and October is perfect to visit mainland Ecuador.

"When I was in college I lived in a European city for many years. I loved it, but oh! How I missed my beloved Andes and their peach-colored sunsets. Nowhere else have I found snow, tropical rainforests, and penguins in Equatorial latitudes! As a proud Ecuadorian, I enjoy having my ceviche before the sea, swimming in the Amazon rivers and listening to the spirit of the Andes whisper to my ear. But I especially love to help travelers feel those sensations themselves and fall in love with the magical beauty of this country."

WOW Moments Peru

Bike and Tapas - Lima

“With some of the best restaurants in the world, Lima is considered South America’s capital of gastronomy. Enjoy some of the best-kept secrets of Peruvian cuisine on our ‘bike and flavors’ tour of the city. Explore Lima on two wheels and enjoy some of the best Peruvian food stopping at hidden restaurants and huariques celebrated by locals and chosen by our local team.”

Women-Led Inca Trail - Machu Picchu

“Hike the last leg of the Inca Trail to Machu Picchu in the company of the ladies of the Village of the Flowers, a local community providing support to our luxury Inca Trail experience. These ladies are part of the entourage, accompanying our guests to the Sun Gate to see Machu Picchu the way the Incas did centuries ago. Share their enthusiasm, pride, and love for their culture, while taking active part in this project that empowers Andean women and keeps this millenary culture alive.”

Trekking with Llamas - Sacred Valley

“Trek the Sacred Valley of the Incas exploring ancestral routes and capturing impressive views, escorted by locals from the Village of the Flowers community, bearers of ancient, millenary cultures and their docile llamas. No better local companions on this light trek overlooking a lake, followed by a delicious gourmet picnic lunch to pamper your senses.”

Must-Do in Peru

The Land of the Incas is worldly known as a must-visit destination! During your visit, remember to visit Machu Picchu, hiking the last leg of the Inca Trail in the company of women from one of the most ancient local communities in the Sacred Valley, and complement the trip venturing into the highest navigable lake in the world, Lake Titicaca or a water-safari experience on the mighty Amazon River.

Best Time to Go

Traditional High Season is April to November, due to better climatic conditions in the Andes, however many prefer to travel from October to March, enjoying Lima’s summer, and much less crowded archaeological sites.

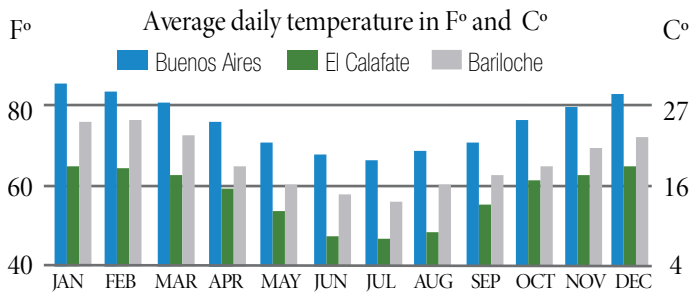

“I see travel as the perfect way to combine exciting emotions with the wonders of the world. With over 30 years of experience, I’ve learned that every place on this beautiful planet has a story to tell and it’s just up to us to listen to it, be it through adventure, nature expeditions or food.

The point is always to enjoy, live, and inspire experiences!”
