

'Fairytale Cities' of Central Europe with Akorn

AKORN DESTINATION MANAGEMENT

A WINTER WONDERLAND

Embrace seasonal ice skating at Vajdahunyad Castle, one of the oldest and beautiful rinks in Central Europe. A short distance to Budapest's main Christmas market held at Vorosmarty Square with Hungarian delicacies and traditional folk dance performances.

BUDAPEST

BUDAPEST'S THERMAL BATHS

Tour the Christmas markets and illuminations followed by relaxation at one of Budapest's thermal baths, with Gellert and Szechenyi the main two, offering time to unwind during the festive season with an idyllic backdrop of Art Nouveau architecture.

VIENNA'S CHRISTKINDLMARKT

Enjoy the season with a guided tour of the city's markets, the largest being Christkindlmarkt set against the iconic City Hall. Taste festive flavours of gluhwein and gingerbread, with a visit to Spittelberg market winding its way through the cobbled streets.

MAGICAL SCHONBRUNN PALACE

Soak up advent tradition at the stunning Schönbrunn Palace, which holds its own little Christmas market in the foreground of the entrance. Experience an after-hours tour followed by gourmet dining and private concert in the Orangery.

CHRISTMAS MARKETS AND TRDELNIK

Explore Prague's world-renowned Christmas markets alongside your private guide, taking in the ambience of Wenceslas Square and the Old Town. Savour specialities like Trdelnik, a sugar-coated pastry to delight in a warming treat in the cooler months.

TIME FOR PALACES AND CASTLES

Visit the iconic Astronomical Clock alongside your private guide, and take a short walk across the 14th century Charles Bridge to Prague Castle. Rejoice in seasonal craft workshops and festivities at Lobkowitz Palace, located in the Castle complex.

Akorn Europe is here to support you and will be delighted to assist with any queries relating to Budapest, Vienna and Prague.
