We've come a long way since pioneering our first luxury safari in Kenya in 1962, equipped with nothing but a safari vehicle, a silver ice bucket and a thirst for adventure. Today we are the world's largest network of luxury destination management companies (DMCs), more than 55 offices in over 30 countries. The Akorn Destination Management difference is evident in everything we do, from creative and personalized itineraries, to expert ground operations and the very best guides. Our global reach and extensive network offers your guests 'insider access', enabling us to open doors to people, places, and experiences that others simply cannot.
