

A monument to the Renaissance, Florence remains one of the world's greatest artistic capitals celebrating all areas of the arts from literary writers such as Dante, Petrarch and Machiavelli to painters and sculptors such as Botticelli, Michelangelo and Donatello. Architectural masterpieces such as the Piazza della Signoria and Brunelleschi's Duomo along with numerous galleries such as the Uffizi and Bargello offer much for the cultural art lover. Alternatively, visitors can sit back and enjoy the exquisite food and wine of Florence whilst watching the sunset over the Arno river.
