Pétanque with Locals in Luang Prabang, Laos

Similar to lawn bowls, pétanque is a popular pastime in Luang Prabang, where groups of friends and family are often seen playing together in public parks.

Angkor Treasure Hunt for Families, Cambodia

The hidden treasures of Angkor are revealed in a fun and interesting treasure hunt challenge. Using a tablet and hints from an Akorn guide, guests search for clues among the ancient temple ruins. Ideal for young families and team building events.

An Evening at Ben Xuan in Hue, Vietnam

A beautiful home on the banks of the Huong River, Ben Xuan Garden House is the ideal venue for an exclusive private dining experience in Hue.

Constructed using centuries-old materials, the architectural style reflects the imperial history of the ancient city.

Akorn guests are personally welcomed by the owners and enjoy a live musical performance before sitting down to a five-course meal featuring modern Vietnamese cuisine.

Dinner with a View in Bagan, Myanmar

Dine under the stars surrounded by Bagan's ancient landscape. The meal is accompanied by a traditional dance performance in view of a beautifully illuminated temple.
